

HealthBook⁺

Transforming the way people
manage their health care

Overview & Vision

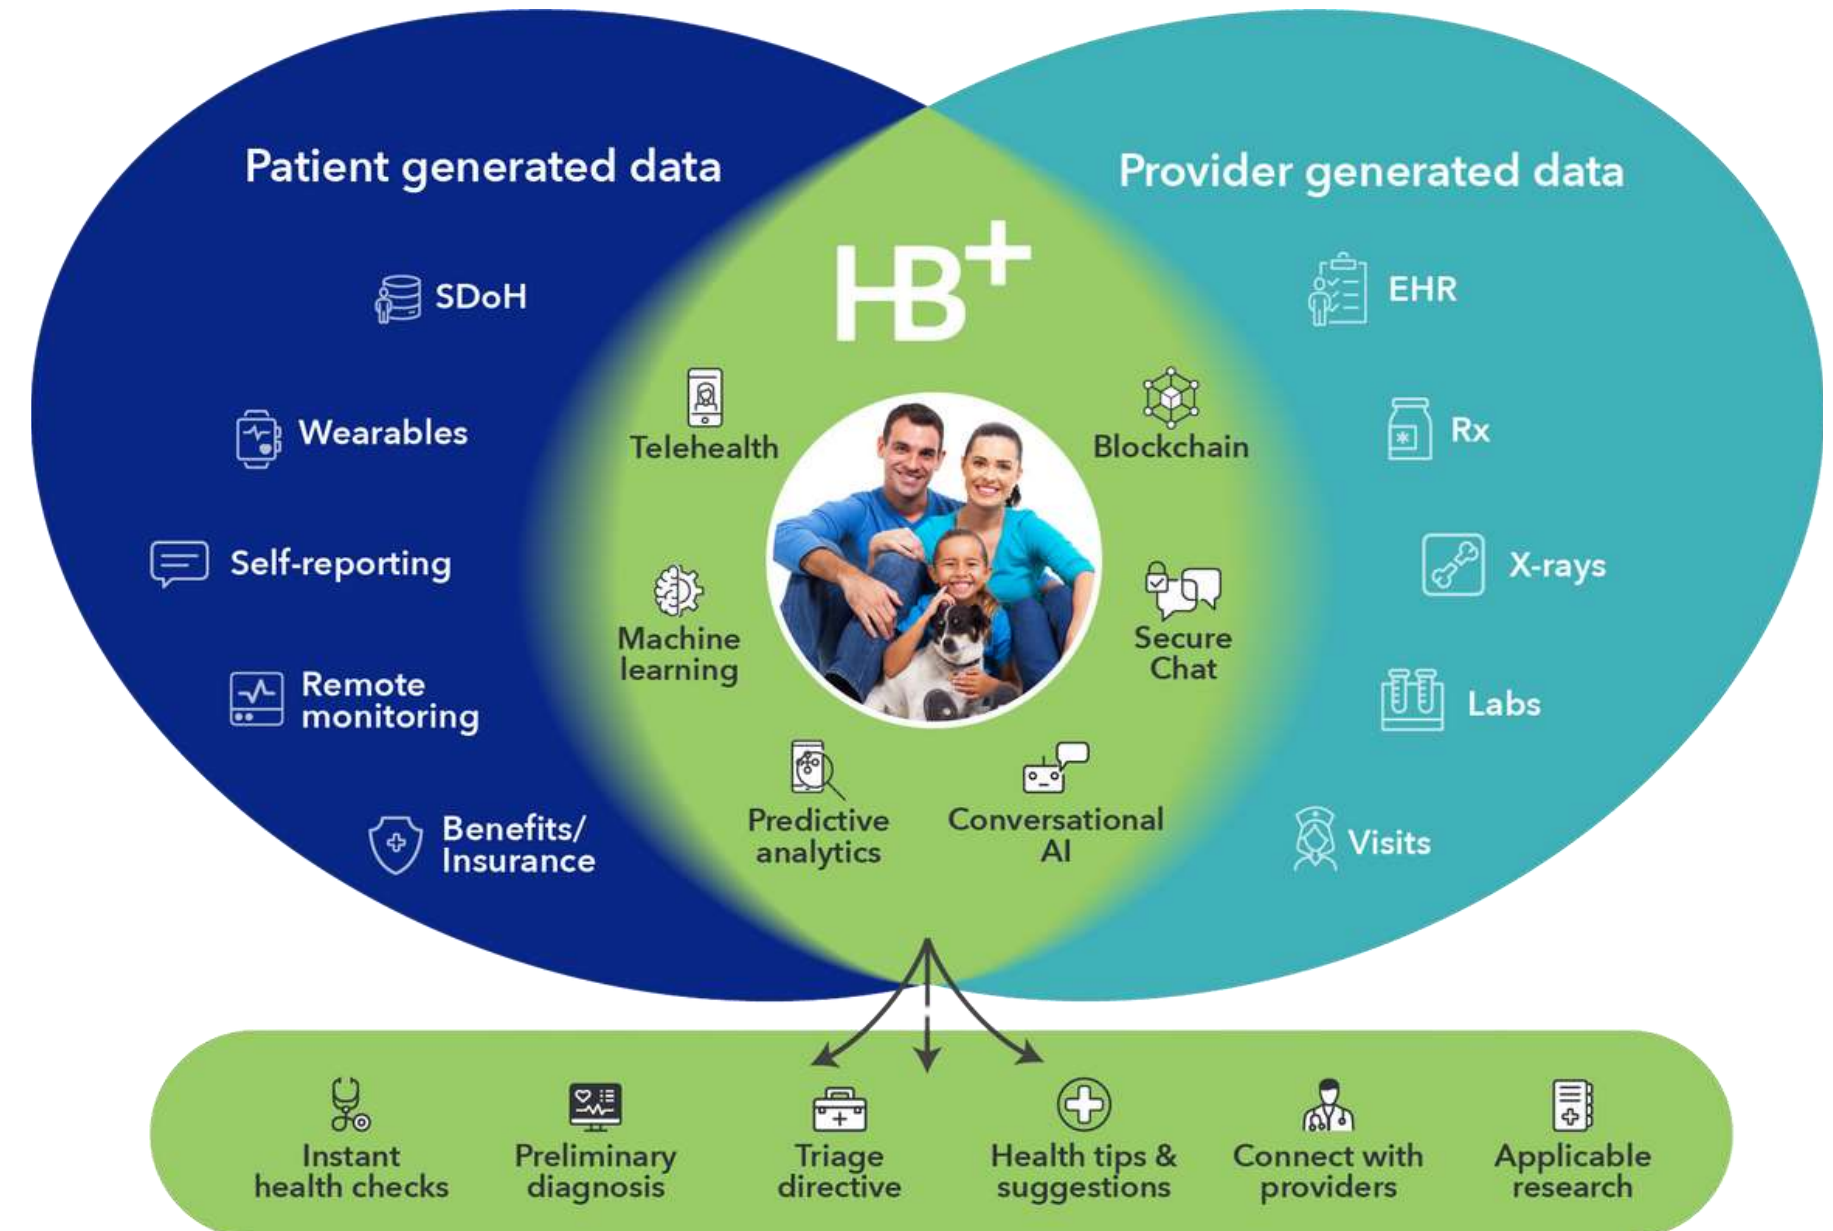

HealthBook+ is an early identification & guided health platform for individuals. We help guide personal health care decisions by securely consolidating health data in one simple-to-use, digital-first care platform that advances artificial intelligence learning to predict & recommend the next best health action, putting individuals in charge of their health journey.

The HealthBook+ Platform

Enables members to aggregate all of their healthcare information, wearables and durable medical equipment data across various sources and systems, creating a seamless experience that provides predictive health analytics.
